

Value of Donated Goods

Items must be useable and in good condition.

Items have low or high range; use your discretion in choosing the value based on its condition.

A good way to value an item is what it might sell for in a garage sale or thrift store.

If the value of your contribution is below $500, we need the original cost, approximate age, and value of the items, the items do not need to be detailed.

If the value of your donation is $500 or more, you need to document the original cost of each item, the date acquired, and the value on the date of the contribution.
